

Video: Wisconsin demonstrations continue

By Andre Damon
7 March 2011

Up to 50,000 people participated in a demonstration in Madison, Wisconsin, Saturday, as protests against Governor Scott Walker's budget cuts completed their third week. In this video, workers speak about their suspicions that the Democrats are preparing to accept Walker's demands, and give their thoughts on a general strike.

To contact the WSWS and the
Socialist Equality Party visit:

<http://www.wsws.org>