

Video: SEP national secretary James Cogan urges maximum participation in Free Julian Assange rallies

2 March 2019

The following video is from a Socialist Equality Party (SEP) press conference on Thursday in Sydney's Martin Place.

SEP national secretary James Cogan called on workers and youth to attend tomorrow's Free Julian Assange rally in Sydney. He demanded the government explain why it refuses to accept the United Nations ruling that WikiLeaks publisher is being "arbitrarily detained."

To contact the WSWS and the
Socialist Equality Party visit:

<http://www.wsws.org>