

South Carolina Amazon worker speaks on loss of his health, benefits and job

By Ed Hightower and Michael Walters
21 March 2020

This video interview was conducted before the COVID-19 outbreak became a global pandemic. Now more than ever, workers must fight for the right to safe working conditions and access to health care.

How is the COVID-19 crisis affecting you and your workplace? Send us your story at wsws.org/amazon. All workers may submit stories, not just Amazon workers.
